

Living the Tradition – Keeping it Live!

Join us for a second series of summer concerts and workshops in north Northumberland to celebrate the music of the area.

Concerts

Thursday 8 July	7.30pm. Holy Trinity Church, Embleton
Friday 30 July	7.30pm. St. Lawrence's Church, Warkworth
Thursday 19 August	7.30pm. St. Mary's Church, Newton
Friday 3 September	6.00pm. St. Cuthbert's Centre, Holy Island

Admission to concerts: £5 (children under 12 free)

Workshops

Thursday 8 July	2.00 – 4.00pm. Parish Church Room, Embleton
Friday 30 July	2.00 – 4.00pm. St. Lawrence's Church, Warkworth
Friday 3 September	2.00 – 4.00pm. St. Cuthbert's Centre, Holy Island

For players of any melody instruments in concert pitch. Learn some old and new tunes from the new tunebook, Sweet and Salt Water, and maybe try out some dance steps and songs to go with them. If you'd like to, stay for the evening concert and perform a set of tunes with us!

Saturday 14 August 2.00 – 4.00pm. Parish Church Room, Embleton

By request, a similar workshop specially for players of Northumbrian smallpipes in F pitch.

Free refreshments available at all workshops. Cost: £5 per session.
Places limited - please book in advance

Sweet and Salt Water

A collection of old and new tunes for Northumbrian smallpipes, fiddles and other instruments. 52 tunes with harmonies by Margaret Watchorn, available mid June. Price £10 plus postage and packing.

For further details, or to book tickets and workshop places, contact Andrew or Margaret Watchorn on 01665 576245 or info@pipesandfiddle.co.uk